

Puqisqat

Puqisqat, nallunrailngut Pirsiiitam saaria'i	The smart, wise kings of Persia nallun'irluku kangirciluku	recognizing and understanding nunami suucia qilam Angayuqsinaa	that the king of heaven was born tanqisqamen agyamen ang'at'slluteng,	had themselves borne toward the holy star, t'killuku Wefliyemaq,	arrived at Bethlehem, asinrit pikiyutkateng ang'at'slluki,	bearing their best gifts, suulutaaq cali laataq cali mingugtuutaq;	gold and frankincense and myrrh; igs'piarluteng nayangarluteng	they fell down and worshipped tang'rhngamegt'gu qaiqunami Inarngallria:	when they saw Him lying in the cave:
Uswillraaq Uksuilnguq!	the Ageless Child!

“The Wise Men” Traditional Orthodox hymn transcribed and translated by Jeff Leer.
Generations CD Track 15.