

Qangyusinaq

Aqum'allianga caqiq niitaqa (Chorus 2x)
Man'a nuna arulaluni / aulaluni
Tuknitmen agluni Yi-ii-ii-ii-rii

I was sitting, I hear something
the land here is moving
It is getting stronger Yi-ii-ii-ii-rii

Uswillranka iwa'iluki
Mayurluta ingrimen
Qangyusinaq englupet cayugluki
Man'a nuna arulaluni / aulaluni
Tuknitmen agluni Yi-ii-ii-ii-rii

I look for my children
We climb the mountain
the great wave pulls away our houses
the land here is moving
It is getting stronger Yi-ii-ii-ii-rii

(Chorus 2x - make bread dance movement)

(Chorus 2x - make bread dance movement)

Uswillranka allrilurmi
Quyawiklluku Agayun
Man'a nuna arulaluni / aulaluni
Tuknitmen agluni Yi-ii-ii-ii-rii

My children are all together (as one)
Being thankful to God
the land here is moving
It is getting stronger Yi-ii-ii-ii-rii

Aqum'allianga caqiq niitaqa (Chorus)
Man'a nuna arulaluni / aulaluni
Tuknitmen agluni Yi-ii-ii-ii-rii

I was sitting, I hear something
the land here is moving
It is getting stronger Yi-ii-ii-ii-rii

(make bread - dance movements)

(make bread - dance movements)

by Florence Pestrikoff, Kari Sherod, Lena Amason, and Agatha John-Shields with help from Nick Alokli and Dennis Knagin. Inspired by Florence's experience of the 1964 Earthquake & Tidal Wave in Old Harbor